LINDSAY BREAKS RECORD AT MOURANT HLSCC COLLEGE CLASSICS VIRGIN GORDA FINALE

Monday, November 9 – Katrina Lindsay broke the record at the 25th Edition of the Mourant H. Lavity Stoutt Community College Classics Race Series in Virgin Gorda on Saturday, November 7 at the College's Virgin Gorda Centre.

The Virgin Gorda finale leg of the series recorded Jelani Croal as the race winner after he ran a time of 11:29.39. He was followed by Katrina Lindsay in a record-breaking time for the women after running a time of 11:35.07. Lindsay held the previous record of 11:40.34, which she broke on October 19, 2019.

Race Director, Mrs. Stephanie Russ Penn explained that this finale and the one on Tortola are both earmarked to especially celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the Race Series.

Mrs. Russ Penn also extended tremendous appreciation on behalf of the College to the individuals that participated in the finale and that have participated throughout the years.

The final race at the Paraquita Bay campus is scheduled for Saturday, November 14, and will showcase relay teams for the first time in the series' history.
